Item No. 1. Approval of Minutes-December 5, 2023

With no additions or corrections, the minutes stand.

Chairperson's Report

Payment has been received from the City of Comer and Danielsville for their Municipal Election.

No change in Federal and State districts, therefore, no redistricting is needed.

The 2024 election bulletin has been distributed to the BOER members.

Qualifying for county elections will begin March 4, 2024 at 9:00 a.m. and will end on March 8, 2024, at 12:00 noon. All qualifying fees have been published in the legal organ of Madison County. All qualifying will be held in the BOER office, 20 Albany Ave., Danielsville, GA.

Mr. Clyde Verhine, President of the Democratic Party of Madison County, has submitted a copy of their by-laws and officers.

Logic and Accuracy (L&A) notice has been submitted to the legal organ of Madison County. L&A will begin on January 16, 2024, at 10:00 a.m.

Absentee applications are being accepted. Ballots will be mailed beginning February 12, 2024.

A viewing area is in progress to allow the public to see in the voting room without being able to see the front screens of the BMD's.

Homeland Security has completed a visual inspection of the BOER office as directed by the Secretary of State of Georgia. This inspection was directed to each county in the state of Georgia. The inspector has made recommendations which include cameras on the side of the building and a new glass front door, among other issues. Ms. Dean will submit and copy to the BOC Chairman and Commissioners. She will address these issues at a future BOC meeting.

Poll workers are needed. There has been at least nine workers that have decided not to work on Election Day in 2024.
