Item No. 1. Approval of Minutes-April 9, 2024

With no additions or corrections, the minutes stand.

Chairperson's Report

Early Voting continues. A total of 322 ballots have been cast as of today, May 7, 2024, during Early Voting. There have been 164 ballots mailed and 39 have been returned. The office of Mike Collins spoke with Ms. Dean on USPS concerns. Ms. Dean will keep Mr. Collins informed on any USPS changes or delays.

The City of Hull has paid in full for conducting their June, 2023, election. Mr. John Barber, Mayor of Hull, has informed Ms. Dean they will have a Special Election in November, 2024. Ms. Dean has spoken with the clerk of the City of Hull and informed her of all deadlines.

Ms. Dean has been put on the May 20, 2024, BOC agenda to request funds to replace front door and add additional cameras outside the building. The county clerk stated she would speak with BOC Chairman about request and perhaps he could make the decision and not have to go before the BOC.
